

See full videos of www.maryloubigelow.com/tv

The Global Connection

The Global Connection Series (TGC) is an offshoot of the former The Global Connection with Mary Lou Bigelow, a weekly interview talk show that debuted on TV-19 in Winchester, Mass. in 1995 and ran through 1996. The show focuses on the essence of the human spirit and the road to peace through better understanding of all peoples of the world. (125 Shows)

Journalist Helen Thomas in her West Wing office at the White House

US Sen. Edward M. Kennedy

Prof. John Kenneth Galbraith at his home in Cambridge

The Afghanistan Series

The Afghanistan Series (AS) is an award-winning TV show that focuses on understanding the country of Afghanistan and its people. The program is designed to showcase the Afghan "voice and face" for a worldwide audience. It is nonpolitical, promoting continued worldwide focus on helping Afghanistan return to normalcy. Viewers see Mary Lou's exclusive interviews and documentaries taken during her trips to Kabul, Afghanistan in September and October of year 2002 and in March 2004, as well as her vintage film footage taken from 1968 to 1972 when she lived and taught in the country. (74 shows)

The Mary Lou Bigelow Show

The Global Connection
Afghanistan Series

Mary Lou Bigelow
Productions
781-640-3600 Mobile
maryloubigelow@gmail.com
www.maryloubigelow.com

NORTHEAST REGION VIDEO FESTIVAL (ACM) 2003

Third Place: Progress in Reconstruction, Afghanistan Series. (Category–Community Impact) Guest Dean Wise.

Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Stephen C. Ranieri

Third Place: Committee for Rehabilitation Aid for Afghanistan, Afghanistan Series. (Category–Cultural/Ethnic/International.

Guest: Joe Lovoi. Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Stephen C. Ranieri

TELLY AWARDS 2003

24th Annual Telly Awards (Bronze Statuette), Year 2003

Entry: The Search for Khyoom and Rajab A monologue by Mary Lou Bigelow.

Producer/Post Production: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Stephen C. Ranieri

NATIONAL HOMETOWN VIDEO AWARDS (Alliance for Community Media) 2003

First Place: Afghanistan Series: The Soul of Afghanistan – Category: International Programming.

Executive Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Co-Producer and Director: Marsha L. Browne

THE VIDEOGRAPHER AWARDS 2003

Honorable Mention: The Search for Khyoom and Rajab (TV Program/Issue), 2003

Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Stephen C. Ranieri

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL 2003

The Rotary Foundation District 7930 Service Award: for outstanding service in promoting world understanding and peace through the Afghanistan Series and Global Connection Series. Presented by District Governor Victor F. Saldanha

NATIONAL HOMETOWN VIDEO AWARDS (ACM) 2002

First Place: Afghanistan Series Category-- Informational Talk Show. Winning selection was Touring Afghanistan with

Winchester Resident Daniel Parsignault. Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Courtney Bowman

NORTHEAST REGION VIDEO FESTIVAL (ACM) 2002

First Place: The Mary Lou Bigelow Show (Category–Talk Show). Winning selection was The Good Old Days in Afghanistan (1968 to 1972). Guests were Russell Mason and Tim Hamid. Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Courtney Bowman

First Place: Razia Jan-Concerned World Citizen. (Category–Cultural/International). Guest was Razia Jan of Duxbury.

Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director: Maureen Jackson

Second Place: Religious Leaders discuss Better Understanding Among Peoples. (Category–Religious/Inspirational).

Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow Director Maureen Jackson

Second Place: The Soul of Afghanistan (Category–Community Impact).

Executive Producer: Mary Lou Bigelow. Co-Producer and Director: Marsha L. Browne

A special thanks goes to Cameraman Richard Cusolito

Portal: www.maryloubigelow.com

Prof. Lester Thurow at Mass. Institute of Technology

Dr. Abdullah Abdullah
Kabul, Afghanistan

The Soul of Afghanistan
21 Afghans talk about their love of their country on March 5, 2002 at the McCalls Middle School in Winchester, Massachusetts.

National ACM Award 2002